FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Emerging Author Jeremy Dewald has published a collection of short stories revolving around the emotions titled Anxiety, Angst, and Anger at Smashwords.com

Now Available for Review

PHILADELPHIA, PA, April 16, 2017 - Author Jeremy Dewald has written three short stories of three men suffering from three very different emotion breakdowns. Each story is as different in the emotions as it is in its style, with the start of a collection of stories called Anxiety, Angst, and Anger. The collection will be sold on Smashwords.com for a price of $2.99.

The story “Anxiety” is a comedy about a young man’s experiences on a blind date. A seemingly simple night turns awkward when the young man realizes he doesn’t have the payment for the bill.

The story “Angst” is a short story about a desperate criminal and his friends as they try to steal an extremely valuable painting off a very secured compound. A seemingly perfect plan starts to fall apart as the criminal organization owning the compound notices the group of friends attempting a robbery, causing the group to search for the painting while they also fend for their lives.

Lastly, the story “Anger” is about a father’s anger and life choices once he is told his daughter is dying. Problems arise when the father and his wife find out they neither have the money or the insurance to pay for the daughter’s required surgery. A religious father must decide if he should trust in his prayers or take fate into his own hands.
